9. A fee for non attendance to an appointment may be charged.
10. Where patients are in breach of agreed payment terms, we may disclose this information to debt collection agencies and legal proceedings may follow. This may result in your name and address being entered into the Computer Bureau default listing which will have an impact on your credit rating.
11. Interest may be charged on overdue accounts at a rate to be decided by Harper St Health Ltd from time to time.
12. Costs incurred to recover outstanding monies will be charged to the customer.
13. Termination of the contract may apply where there is non-payment without prejudice to any claims Harper St Health Ltd may possess.
14. The patient authorises Harper St Health Ltd to collect, retain and use personal information about the patient for the purposes of assessing the client's creditworthiness. The patient authorises any other company or person to provide Harper St Health Ltd with any information of the type referred to above that may be requested of them. The Credit Reporting Privacy Code 2004 has been issued under the Privacy Act and provides specific rights in relation to personal credit information held by credit reporting agencies as per the Privacy Code at www.privacy.org.nz <<http://www.privacy.org.nz>>
15. Harper St Health Ltd may disclose my personal information in order to provide credit references to other agencies that request them, and for debt collection, repossession, credit reporting and other similar purposes.
16. Harper St Health Ltd agrees not to use or disclose any information more than is reasonably necessary in the circumstances for its genuine business purposes.
17. Supply of goods for personal use will be covered by the Consumer Guarantees Act 1993.
18. Variations to the Terms of Trade may occur from time to time, and Harper St Health Ltd will notify the patient by way of invoice - receipt of which shall be deemed to be acceptance by the patient.
